Natalie K. Schaefer, CPA

Consultant

Fiduciary Advisors, Inc.

Natalie K. Schaefer has over 29 years of experience in the St. Louis area business community. Prior to joining Fiduciary Advisors, Inc. in 2008, Natalie worked almost 19 years with RubinBrown, LLP. Over five of these years were spent as an auditor and twelve years as an ERISA pension plan administrator with the firm's Benefits Group, LLC. During her two most recent years with RubinBrown, LLP, Natalie primarily performed ERISA-required audits of qualified pension plans. Prior to joining RubinBrown, LLP in 1989, Natalie was employed by Edward D. Jones & Co. (now Edward Jones) as manager and limited partner. She began her career at Edward Jones as an internal auditor in 1982 and in 1987 became a registered representative of the firm. Natalie earned her CPA certificate while an auditor for Ernst & Whinney (now Ernst & Young), joining the firm in 1979 upon graduation from the University of Missouri-St. Louis, having earned a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration and Summa Cum Laude honors.

Natalie is a licensed CPA and is currently registered with the U.S. Securities Exchange Commission as an advisor representative, as required under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.
